As a former Church of Christ minister, Bruce Sullivan was a zealous apostle for what he believed to be the true gospel. As such, he was also an ardent anti-Catholic. In fact, his dream was to be a missionary to the largest Catholic nation in the world—Brazil. However, all of that changed when he was confronted with the truth and beauty of the Catholic faith while trying to “evangelize” a Catholic family that had moved into his community.

After agonizing daily over the issues for eighteen months, Bruce was received into the Catholic Church during the Easter Vigil of 1995. Since being received into the Catholic Church, Bruce has served as a catechist in his local parish, a lecturer and speaker on topics related to Catholic apologetics, and a dedicated foot soldier in the New Evangelization called for by Pope John Paul II. He has been a guest on EWTN’s Mother Angelica Live, The Journey Home, and Deep In Scripture. He presently resides with his wife, Gloria, and their five children on a family farm in Kentucky.

Bruce will be giving two separate talks on two consecutive evenings. His talk for the first evening will consist of sharing some of the details of his conversion to the Catholic faith. Particular emphasis will be placed on the primary issue that brought him to the Catholic Church (i.e. that of authority). He will also spend some time providing an answer to the question once asked him by a non-Catholic co-worker: “What did you find in the Catholicism that you did not find in Protestantism?”

On the second evening, Bruce’s talk will focus on one of the gifts that he has received from the Catholic Church: namely, Christ in the fullness of His Word. Particular emphasis will be placed on the Church’s teaching regarding the inerrancy of Sacred Scripture. This is a particularly timely topic in view of the widespread confusion that exists in the minds of many regarding the nature of inspiration and its necessary implications.
