David Currie was raised in a devout Christian family whose father was a fundamentalist preacher and both parents taught at Moody Bible Institute. Currie's whole upbringing was immersed in the life of fundamentalist Protestantism - theology professors, seminary presidents and founders of evangelical mission agencies were frequent guests at his family dinner table. Currie himself received a degree from Trinity International University and studied in the Masters of Divinity program at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. These lectures will be an explanation to his fundamentalist and evangelical upbringing and why he became a Roman Catholic. Currie presents a very lucid, systematic and intelligible account of the reasons for his conversion to the ancient Church that Christ founded. He gives a detailed discussion of the important theological and doctrinal beliefs Catholic and evangelicals hold in common, as well as the key doctrines that separate us, particularly the Eucharist, the Pope, and Mary. David Currie's second lecture will be on the Rapture and how his views changed from the fundamentalist view to when he became Roman Catholic.

David Currie is the author of two books "Rapture: The End-Times Error That Leaves the Bible Behind!" and "Born Fundamentalist, Born Again Catholic", these two lectures will be based on these books and David Currie's conversion from fundamentalist protestant to the Catholic Faith.
