John Martignoni's background is in finance, but after listening to 60 seconds of Catholic-bashing on protestant radio, his life changed forever. John took what he heard on the radio as an opportunity to defend his Catholic beliefs and help others understand the Catholic Faith. John founded the Bible Christian Society in 1996, a Catholic apostolate based on education and evangelization in Catholic apologetics with a mission statement "To work towards the conversion of at least 50% of the Greater Birmingham area to Catholicism by the year 2038." The first step in that plan was the Bible Christian Hour, a 1-hour weekly program of Catholic-apologetics on the same Protestant radio station where John originally heard the 60 seconds of Catholic bashing. This program aired from February 1998 to February 1999. The Bible Christian Society also sponsors parish seminars and workshops on apologetics in Birmingham and many other locations throughout the country, as well as distributes thousands of CD's and cassette tapes each year both locally, nationally, and even internationally. John's unique approach to apologetics makes it something that all Catholics, junior high age and up, can learn to do.

John has been a guest on EWTN's "Life on the Rock" and "Journey Home" programs. He currently hosts "EWTN Open Line", a live, nationally-telecast, call-in radio program of Bible apologetics. This program airs every Monday afternoon from 12:00 – 1:00 PM PT.

"Was Hitler Right - Why Atheists Have No Rights. This talk gives you a line of reasoning to use when talking to atheists about the existence of God, and when talking to those who favor abortion, euthanasia, and embryonic stem cell research about the morality of their beliefs.
