Specializing in the "theology of the body," the single life, the genius of woman, chastity formation, marriage and the Eucharist, and passing on the faith, Katrina brings a dynamic and personal dimension to her speaking. She was born and raised in San Diego, California, but left the sun and beach for Steubenville, Ohio, where she earned her BA in theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville. As a single mother, she has acquired a wealth of experience and knowledge across life's journey from marriage to single life to raising children to romance.

Katrina J. Zeno is the author of "Every Woman's Journey: Answering 'Who am I' for the Feminine Heart" and the co-host of a 13-part series for EWTN on the theology of the body as well as the host for a 13-part series on the Genius of Women for Catholic Familyland TV. Katrina is a well-published freelance writer with her articles appearing in Our Sunday Visitor, Catholic Parent, New Covenant magazine, CRISIS magazine, Catholic Faith and Family, Pentecost Today, The Catholic Home Educator, and Franciscan Way. She has spoken in the US, Switzerland, England, Canada, and Trinidad at parishes, retreat centers, and national conferences. Katrina is the blest mother of a college-age son Michael, and she enjoys teaching swing dance, dancing Argentine tango, and body surfing.

Currently, Katrina is the coordinator of the John Paul II Resource Center for Theology of the Body and Culture for the Diocese of Phoenix, Arizona.
